The Role

Reports to: Creative Director and Head of Design

Purpose: To support the creative teams on digital integrated campaigns including responsive web design, on and off-line advertising through to high-impact direct mail, experiential, AR and video, as well as things that haven't been invented yet.

This is a fantastic opportunity for a passionate digital designer to build on a creative and varied portfolio while developing your skills.

Key Skills/Requirements:

- Experience of working within an agency environment delivering design/web design projects to a high standard
- Apart from bags of talent, you're also proficient with Adobe Creative Suite (Illustrator/ Photoshop/InDesign a must)
- Working knowledge of HTML5, CSS and JQuery also a requirement
- Knowledge of After Effects, WordPress, UX, UI and JS a bonus
- You have a great portfolio demonstrating your work experience
- With a finger firmly on the pulse of what's happening in the world of design and digital, you are able to share your discoveries across the agency.
- Strengths in managing your own time effectively and updating on progress regularly
- You're a genuinely nice person, with a strong sense of fun, who can communicate and work well in a team
- A degree or diploma in design or web design or related field desirable but not essential
